RAM, Inc. Showcases at the International Paris Air Show in Partnership with the Texas Economic Development Office of the Governor

Cisco, Texas - RAM, Inc. is pleased to announce their participation in the International Paris Air Show hosted June 19th- 25th at Le Bourget in Paris, France. The Paris Air Show hosted 2,500 exhibitors from 46 countries and covered 125,000 sqm of exhibition space including 150 aircraft Trade Visitors, 300,000 General Public Visitors and 130,000 unique Professional Visitors. RAM, Inc. was one of 12 Texas Aerospace and Defense companies to partner with the Texas Economic Development and Tourism Office of the Governor at the Paris Air Show. Texas was one of 13 states to be represented in the Kallman Worldwide USA Pavilion over the 6-day Air Show event.

Program Management team members for RAM, Inc., Mike Lewis, Danielle Rogers, and Marissa Ransted worked together to develop new business relationships and enhance existing customer relationships. The Paris Air Show showcased ambitious innovations and extraordinarily competitive emerging technologies that RAM, Inc. looks to bring back to the Big Country market. Additionally, the RAM Inc. team was able to connect with US Ambassador to France, Denis Campbell Bauer and hear from her on the importance and vitality of the aerospace and defense industry.
